The funeral of Timothy Francis
Leahy was held from his late home,
No. 121 Boswell avenue, at 8.36 o'clock
Friday morning, with service at St.
Mary's church at 9 o'clock, where Rev.
P. J. O'Reilly of Montville, a cousin of the deceased, celebrated high mass of requiem.

The wealth of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the young man was held by his friends.

Especially expressive was the beautiful standing cross from his comrades

REPORT OF STATE REGENT D

Attention Directed More Towards Patriotic Educational Work-Putnam Chapter Only One to Erect a Monu-

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, April 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Barney Buel, regent of the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution, presented her report at the meeting of the congress of the organization this morning. It is in part as follows: "Since March, 1910, the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution have been pushing their work with the serious earnestness and united effort for which they have been noted in the past. Their attention is being more and more turned towards the patriotic educational work of our society, the immigrant, the southern mountaineer, and the public schools holding each a generous share of their sympathy and effort, Memorial work is not forgotten, however, and many chapters still care for the revolutionary cemeteries and graves in their respective localities but only one chapter, the Elizabeth Porter Putnam chapter, of Putnam, has erected any monument or other memorial during the past year.

Memorial Continental Hall, (Special to The Bulletin.)

Memorial Continental Hall. "Interest in Memorial Continental hall has not flagged, as proved by the fact that the Connecticut chapter have unanimously voted to assume the cost of one of the three pairs of bronze doors leading into the main lobby and estimated at $3,000. Not content with the gift of the board room last year, Connecticut decided that she would like to enter Continental hall through her own doors." her own doors."
Mrs. Buel devoted a considerable

Mrs. Buel devoted a considerable space to a description of the work done by the state body in the matter of educating the Italian immigrant in the laws, manners and ideals of American life. They have issued a "Guida" printed in the Italian language, which has been copyrighted by the society, of which the first edition of three thousand copies was issued the first of last June, and all sold during the summer.

Summer.

So great has been the demand for this book that a second edition of ten thousand copies will soon be exhausted and a third edition will be needed. Plans are being made to issue this Guide Book in English, Yiddish and the Polish languages. In their interest in the immigrant they have not forgotten the natives of the southern mountains. Seventeen chapters are forgotten the natives of the southern mountains. Seventeen chapters are maintaining twenty-four white and four mixed scholarships for the benefit of students of Maryville college, Tennessee, Berea collège, Kentucky, and Miss Berry's school in Georgia, and other schools, the total amount sent south during the year being $1,-260.

History Clubs for Boys. Connecticut History clubs for boys have been started by a few of the chapters, and much money has been spent on educational work of a miscellaneous character and on some philanthropic enterprises. The state societies continue to maintain their collective state. cleties continue to maintain their col-lective state property, the Ellsworth homestead, at Windsor, which costs several hundred dollars in its upkeep. The total amount of money spent by the Connecticut D. A. R. on their work during the past year, not including the expenses of the homestead, is $24,-985.05, nearly twice the amount report-ed last year. ed last year.

During the year two new chapters have been formed, the Lady Fenwick chapter, of Cheshire, and the Sarah Rogers chapter, of Naugatuck. The total membership in the state is given as 4,632, an increase for the year of

The Anna Warner Bailey chapter of Groton and Stonington now numbers one hundred and twenty-nine members including two "real" daughters. During the year, the death of its regent, Mrs. Eugene I. Baker, paralyzed its activities for a time, but in spite of this the chapter spent over $132 on its work, $25 being donated towards the publication of the "Guida."

The Anne Brewster Fanning chapter of Jewett City, with a membership of twenty, only fifteen of whom are active members, has done its fair share of the work of the state. It supplies the flags each year which are used to decorate the graves of the revolutionary soldlers and the soldlers of the war of 1812.

One "Real" Daughter. Afternoon Session.

One "Real", Daughter.

Anne Wood Elderkin chapter of William hitch has a membership of 74, including one "real" daughter. The chapter continues to assist a young girl through the high school and sends flowers to the Grand Army post on Memorial day.

Deborah Avery Putnam chapter of Plainfield donated $10 to the bronze door fund, $5-for the guide and $5 for an historical prize essay in the high school.

Elizabeth Porter Putnam chapter of Putnam shows its prosperity by reaching the 100 mark in its membership and the expenditure of $527 in his work, which is largely memorial and educational.

Faith Trumbuil Chapter. One "Real" Daughter.

Faith Trumbull Chapter.

Faith Trumbull chapter of Norwich numbers 110 members and reports energetic work in distributing the Guide among the Italian residents of their town. It has given $20 to the Guide fund, and upwards of $32 has been contributed by individual members. The chapter has also given $25 towards the Connecticut bronze doors, making a total of $102 spent by the chapter in its work.

The Fanny Ledyard chapter of Mystic reports the following expenditures for the year, Memorial work $5, historical work $50, educational work $5, chapter work $126,25, making a total of $270. Faith Trumbull Chapter

New London Chapter Busy.

Lucretia Shaw chapter of New London has expended in care and repair of "Ye Antientest" Burial Bround," $136.85; for work about the old Nathan Hale schoolhouse $143.15, in chapter work $258.24, for two scholarships in Maryville college, $100, for donation towards endowment fund of the Woman's college in New London $742.85. Besides this, $70 has been contributed to the Guide fund by individual workers. The chapter has 169 active members.

Sabra Trumbull chapter of Rockville has a membership of 76, and reports the following list of contributions: One scholarship to Maryville college, $50; to "Guida" fund, $25; ten copies of Italian "Guidas," $1.50; marking graves of revolutionary soldiers, $2.50; for bronze doors in Continental hail, $25; free-bed fund, Rockville City hospital.

Interest at Danielson. New London Chapter Busy.

Interest at Danielson Sarah Williams Danielson chapter of Danielson reports that it has been engaged in D. A. R. work throughout the year, and its membership is constantly increasing and that the interest in the chapter work is genuine and enthusiastic.

LIBERATED GAME BIRDS Hungarian Partridges Set Free

Woods Both to the East and West of Ansonia.

Game Warden Henry Shalk received a consignment of Hungarian partridge recently from the government authori-ties. He liberatel the birds in the local woods where the best natural cover is found. The majority of the birds were liberated on the east side of the river though some were placed in the west side woods. The game The social committee of the Y. P.
S. C. E. of the First Congregational church is making plans for an enter-tainment.

In the west side woods, the game worden has made a thorough study of the woods and believes he has placed the birds where they will best thrive its time that the city's woods have been stocked by a local untsman.

Heretofore the stocking, or at least Heretofore the stocking, or at least the reported stocking, has been done by the state game and fish commission agents. The game warden reports a good response on the part of the local huntsmen to the request for subscriptions to the fund to purchase western birds, with which it is planned to stock the woods in this city. The work is being done independently of the government stocking, and a large supply of game will be purchased, judging from the manner in which the huntsmen are responding.—Ansonia Sentinel.
